Notes for Eilert Carlson:

This information came from a descendant of Paul Olsson, brother of Randi Olsdtr.

"She told that Eilert Carlsen and Paul Olsson (the brother of Rønnaug Olsdatter) were passing Djupvik and saw that there was some land for sale. And they bought it and moved there with their families. Rønnaug changed her name to Randi because they couldn't pronounce it the way she was used to. Eilert and his family all went to America. His son Iver died and buried in Lyngseidet churchyard. Edvard she didn't know about. So there are no direct descendents after Eilert left in Djupvik. But after Paul Olssen (uncle of Regine Marie) there are still a few. One is Arvid Pedersen, Djupvik, and another is Laila Paulsen". Laila was still living there in 1999.

In 1864 he sold his property to his son-in-law, Ole Mortenson, and Mr. Valentine Berg. He remarried and sailed to Quebec, settled first in LaCross, Wisconsin, then moved to Langhei Township in 1866. He died in 1870. His farm was bought by his son-in-law, Ole Mortenson, husband of Anne Eilertsdr. from the heirs of Eilert Carlson.

His Graveston inscription:

Fodt born
MAALSELVEN Maalselven in Norway den 31 Dec 1812 in 1864 and died the 3rd day of May 1870
i NORGE immigrated to America

His children erected him this memorial in grateful memory of his peaceful conduct/behavior.

He was born 18 Nov 1836 in Maeremsrud, Tinn, Telemark, Norway<sup>37</sup>, and died 25 Aug 1924 in Crow Lake (Stearns) Minnesota<sup>38,39</sup>.

Notes for Regina Maria Eilertsdtr:

Notes from Richard Johnson:

Christian married Regina Maria Elertsdatter (Sept. 27, 1850 - August 2, 1934) on July 8, 1868. She was born in Norway also. They were married in St. Cloud and had 10 children.

Regina was very small, short. Made yarn until 1924. Jerome and George {Johnson, her grandchildren} stayed with her after C.H.'s death. Her family: fishermen. Mild, quiet, friendly, religious, very good looking.

Note in the family Bible says that Regina came from "the Land of the Midnight Sun in Norway."

Notes from Grace Sandvig Bjerkebeck:

On July 8th, 1868, Christian married Regina Mary Ellertson at St. Cloud Minnesota. She was born in 1850 in Norway, far to the north in the land of the midnight sun. At the age of 14 she too crossed the ocean to the promised land accompanying her parents and met Christian. She was 18 years old and Christian was 32 when they married. The log cabin was made into a two story house all built of logs and as the family grew another room was added on and later another room and a porch were added to the house.

Regina worked very hard raising her family, gardening, canning and drying fruit and vegetables for the winter months. She washed clothes by hand, washed, carded and spun wool from their sheep, knitting under ware, stocking and mittens. She carded wool battings to be used in the piece quilts she made. Her daughters were good to help. They also sewed clothes for her family. They had large meals to make for the family and the hired man who ate with the family. At times there were 12 to 14 people there at the table. She lived to be 84 years of age.

According to A History of the Crow River Lutheran Church, she arrived in Crow Lake Township in 1868

(Information furnished by Grace (Sandvig) Bjerkebeck).

Christian would bring milk from his cows to Regina; she would strain it into large bowls or crocks in the cold basement of the house. Overnight the thick cream would come to the top of the milk. She would skim it off, pour it into the churn and make butter, which Christian would take to the store and exchange for groceries.

When Regina had a meal ready, she would reach out the door and ring the dinner bell for Christian who had his shop behind the house with a board wall between.

Regina is buried in the Methodist Episcopal Cemetery next to Christian in the Johnson plot.

Her marriage certificate spells her name Regina Mary Edwardson.

On her death certificate, her father's last name is spelled Ellertson.

In the family bible her name is spelled Regina Maria Elbertson.

A History of Crow River Lutheran Church lists her name as Regina Marie Albertson Eilertsdr.

Notes for Christian H Johnson:

Notes from Grace Bjerkebeck in letter.

In 1850, at the age of 14, he and his older brother John, came to the United States. The passage was made in a small sail ship of those times and it took many weeks to make the perilous trip. They had to take with them their own food and water which they used very sparingly.

After landing on the coast of the United States, the journey to Waupaca County, Wisconsin was made by horse drawn canal boats and ox drawn carts or wagons.

A few years later Christian and John were joined in Wisconsin by their parents, Ole Johnson Sandvig and his wife Gro Kristandatter. Soon after their parents arrived, they joined Christian and John and journeyed westward to Minnesota in the vicinity of Crow Lake Township in the early eighteen sixty's. Christian took up a homestead south west of where Belgrade is now located. The location where their home was built more than twenty years before Belgrade was a town and is located just south of the Methodist cemetery. Christian gave the land for the cemetery to the Methodist and also Zion Lutheran Cemetery.

Christian built a log cabin house and barn.

On July 8th, 1868, Christian married Regina Mary Ellertson at St. Cloud Minnesota.

The log cabin was made into a two story house all built of logs and as the family grew another room was added on and later another room and a porch were added to the house. He later sawed lumber and covered the logs on the house with siding. Once Belgrade had a lumber yard, he bought siding and sided the whole house over the old siding and painted it white. Christian always had a hired man to help him. They were men who had come across from Norway, worked for him a few years, saving their money until they too could build a home of their own.

He also had a grist mill and ground flour and feed for the farmers for miles around. He planted an apple orchard and owned several hives of bees. He had a windmill that was unusual with two sets of blades. The smaller set was at the tail instead of just a fin. A silo and the largest barn in the neighborhood which was used to stable the horses when the Soo Line (then known as the St. Paul, Mpls., and Pacific Railroad), was built.

Christian petitioned for and was chosen the first post master in Crow Lake Township. The post office was located in their home. Christian often told about going to St. Cloud for the mail at least once a month. Some times by horse and buggy or sled, and often on skis when the snow was too deep for the horses to travel.

He later turned the post office over to R. P. Knutson and after Belgrade was established in 1888, the post office was moved into a store building and then given the name of the Belgrade Post Office.

To Christian and Regina ten children were born, namely: Oliver, Charles, Ben, Clara, Mary, Elmer, Elisbeth, Bertha, Alfred and Samuel. All of the children graduated from school except Alfred and Samuel. School was in the home to start with for all the children around. The boys were then sent to the Seminary at Willmar, Minnesota to learn a trade. The girls helped their mother and later each married. Alfred was killed at age six when he fell from the grist mill and Samuel, who was age four, died of shock at seeing his brother killed.

In later years, Christian sold a piece of land bordering on the south side to Oscar Johnson who was married to their daughter Clara. He also sold a piece of land to his son, Charles, which bordered on the west side of their farm. This piece of land also bordered on Crow Lake, a beautiful farm. Christian sold the rest of his farm to A.J.Linderholm, who was in the hardware business called Lundquist and Linderholm. They also took a piece of their land bordering Belgrade and built a big 2 story house with full basement, a large shop to build his bee hives in and a small barn where he had four milk cows. The upper part of the barn was his chicken coop. He worked with the bee's and in his work shop up to the day before he died at age 88.

Christian always read the bible out loud before breakfast and prayed before each meal and at bed time. They were a good Christian family. He was the eighteenth charter member of the Crow River Norwegian Church south of Belgrade and later became members of the Methodist Church in Belgrade. They are buried in the Methodist Cemetery and their children Mary, Clara, Elmer, Samuel and Alfred are also buried there. Charles and Ben are buried in the Crow River Church cemetery and Elisbeth, Oliver and Bertha are buried out in Montana where they had made their homes.

(Information from Grace (Sandvig) Bjerkebeck.)

Although possessing only a rudimentary schooling, he was an ardent and devoted reader. He was a pioneer in the prohibition movement and fought valiantly to obliterate the liquor traffic. He also took great interest in religious movements and his purse was always open to every cause in which he was interested.

In the mornings, Christian would read the Bible to Regina, pray and sing hymns like "Oh, Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight".

Notes from Richard Johnson:

Christian Olson Johnson Sandvig (Nov 18 1836 - 1924), arrived in America in 1851 with brother John Sandvig. On his 21st birthday name legally changed to C.H.Johnson. First worked in Wisconsin, later homesteaded S.+ SW of Belgrade now owned by Lundquist & Linderholm. ("A History of the Crow River Lutheran Church" lists his arrival in Wisconsin as 1851, in St. Cloud in 1868, and that his name was changed to C.H. Johnson at that time.)

(From a letter of Aunt Lizzie (in the family Bible) "Christian came from Norway with his brother John Sandvig and because he was a minor 15 years old the preacher gave my father a new name C.H. Johnson. The initials are after 2 of John's sons Christian and Halver. They lived in Lake Johanna west of Brooten. Halvor was manager of Farmers store in Brooten...My father worked in Wisconsin before he came to Minn.)

CH-beard. Indians chased him back to Wisc. Came back. Built mill at homestead. Traded horses, etc. Very strict, Christian, temperate, didn't smoke. Missionaried later to Montana. Folks carpenter.

According to A History of the Crow River Lutheran Church, "The Indian Outbreak occurred on Sunday, August 20th, 1862. The Dacotah Tribe of the Sioux Indian Nation, under the leadership of Chief Little Crow, lived in this community. The Indians were friendly with the settlers at first, but this territory was their hunting ground, and the Government had promised them a sum of money, which was not paid and the Indians swore revenge; and the Settlers had to suffer...The settlers around Burbank and Colfax fared better, as they were warned; and many of them left for Scandinavia, and Waupaca Co., Wis. Others left for Houston Co., Minn; and a group left for St. Francis, 18 miles Northeast of St. Cloud...From August 1862 to the latter part of 1864, the entire region lay empty, as all the settlers had moved away. In the fall of 1864, several families returned from Wisconsin; as it was then reported that all the hostile Indians had been cleared from this district."

Christian's death certificate #14172 from the State of Minnesota lists his name as Christian Johnson Sandvig, as reported by Regina.

Notes for Martha Eilertsdr:

Martha died in 1916. Her brother, Edward Ellertson petitioned the court on September 18, 1916, to sell Martha's land because "it is necessary and expedient, and for the best interests of the estate...for the following purposes, to-wit: To pay expenses of administration. That the estate consists of an undivided interest held by the heirs of decedent who are living in a foreign country, and are unable to properly look after their property..."

The property consisted of an undivided one-sixth interest in the property left to her by her brother, Lars.

The property was sold. The Starbuck property was sold to Christ M. Pederson.

The Lenghei property was sold to Jens Mortenson, Anne's son. He also bought the remaining property from Anne, Edward, Regina, Carl and Dorthea.

Notes for Charles Reinhart Sandvig:

According to Grace Sandvig (Bjerkebeck), her dad had a very interesting life before he married & settled down. He had gone to Ohio, became engaged to a girl there. Left there & went to his brother Oliver's in Montana, then on to China by freighter boat & learned about irrigation. He was gone 12 years, but by this time his fiance had gotten tired of waiting and married someone else. Then he went on a lecture tour by horse & covered wagon, got $5.00 a night. He stayed at Grace's mother's house and he fell in love with her. They married when Charles was 37.

In the scrapbook is a picture of the way the home looked after Charles built it. He then raised the roof over the "lean-to" and built it twice as big with all windows on the south side. Bill's dog, Lobe, had one window he jumped through to get into the porch to sleep. Charles dug the basement and used the gravel to make the cement for the walls. He boarded up the frame as far as he could and mixed the cement and poured it in. The next day or so when the cement was set, he took the boards off & built them higher until he reached the top. Stella helped him. The picture included Ben and Grace on the snow slide Charles built for Reinhart. Reinhart's wagon is also pictured. (Notes from Grace Bjerkebeck).

In an outstanding confrontation with authorities, a coalition of farmers led by Charles Sandvig attempted to get a court order against ditching and draining the area around Crow Lake, Minnesota, but lost their battle in 1917.

Notes from Richard Johnson: Charles travelled around the world, took pictures and lectured when he came back. He wrote several books. "The Last Ditch" all about irrigation. Odd fellow. Had truck farm, crossed trees, irrigated Crow Lake water on his land. Photographer. Twice kicked by horse. First hot water heating system; first alfalfa hay in county - great experimenter. Bearded.

Children of Charles Sandvig and Stella Palmer are:

132 i. Reinhart Lewis<sup>6</sup> Sandvig, born 06 Jan 1911 in Bloomington, Minn<sup>119</sup>; died 12 Nov 1978 in Montana.

Notes for Reinhart Lewis Sandvig:

Reinhart would stop at his grandma's (Regina) on the way to and from school. He would take her water pail outside to the windmill, fill it with water and bring it in to her. Sometimes he and Grace would shovel coal into the furnace in the full basement under the house.

Struck by a bolt of lightning and died at age 60, a few years later

Never married.

He married (1) Isabella Theoline Pierce 28 Nov 1907 in Crow Lake Township (Stearns) Minnesota<sup>124</sup>, daughter of Issac Pierce and Gunhild Tollefson. She was born 17 Jul 1887 in Crow Lake Township (Stearns) Minnesota<sup>125</sup>, and died 11 Jun 1951 in St. Paul, (Ramsey) Minnesota<sup>126</sup>. He married (2)

Margaret Gartley 01 May 1930 in Morganstown, West Virginia, daughter of William Cargo Gartley. She was born 19 Nov 1900 in Greensburg, Pennsylvania, and died 04 Jul 1983 in Tampa, Florida.

Notes for Andrew Elmer Johnson:

According to "A History of the Crow River Lutheran Church" Elmer Andrew (Sandvig) Johnson was born Col. 1883. (Colfax?)

Andrew Elmer was about 20 years old when he left home for the "west". He developed a great love for the country, especially the Teton mountains.

When Elmer married Isabella, she received $1,000 from her grandparents. With that money, Elmer purchased the feed and flour mill in Almora, Minnesota. The next thing he did was to trade the mill for a threshing rig. (The rig ended up rusting in a back lot of Charles Sandvig's yard.)

Elmer was the first plumber in Belgrade, although it isn't known what year he started his business. He went to work with Lundquist & Linderholm Hardware in Belgrade, who carried on the plumbing business. He assembled farm machinery which was shipped from the factory in crates and boxes. He knew the inner workings of all farm machinery and if someone had a breakdown, he could find the problem in a few minutes.

While at L & L he enrolled in a 30-day course at the University of Minnesota and learned the embalming trade. In 1917, after receiving his license, he performed this service for the store. (According to a memorial obituary, Elmer graduated from the University of Minnesota in 1917.) He purchased the business and moved it to a different location, shortly before the flu epidemic that followed the end of the "great war" in 1919. Walter can remember him having more than one funeral a day on many occasions.

Elmer abandoned his family in 1923, when George was 16, Walter 14, and Jerome 11. In 1925 he paid back taxes and penalties to Stearns Co. This was probably for the house he purchased for Isabelle and the boys when he left. He went to Morganstown West Virginia, and remarried Margaret Gartley in 1930.

According to Walter, Isabelle would never give Elmer a divorce.

Notes from Walter Johnson.

Notes for Isabella Theoline Pierce:

After Gunhild died, Isabella moved back with Grandparents Tollefson's. They were incredibly strict and religious. Farmers. He was invalid and was very mean. (Notes from Richard Johnson).

When Walter was about 12, he remembers complaining to his mother about having to memorize the ten commandments. She told him she memorized the entire catechism from cover to cover - while milking the cows.

Notes for Edwin Gjerdingen:

Edwin (1890-1972) and Alma (1895-1938) Gjerdingen Farm

At intersection of 255thAve. & 282ndSt.

Go south on 25SthAve. and west on 290thSt.

(The northwest corner of the Gjerdingen homestead is located at corner of 265thAve. & 290th St.)

The Gjerdingens had the telephone switchboard at their house. It connected the Starbuck line and switch. Their switchboard made a switch to another line that served Rolling Forks and also Barsness. The Gjerdingens had to listen for the telephone rings and switch each call to the line they needed. Edwin and Alma Gjerdingen bought the farm from John Berge. Edwin and Alma had five children-Herbert, Evelin (died at 1 month), Erwin, Orfa and Gerald. Erwin was 2-3 years old when he moved into that farm. Edwin and Alma lived there for about 22 years. Alma passed away when Erwin was only 19. Alma was 43 when she died in childbirth. Ana's parents were Torgy and Emma Anondson. Emma's maiden name was Ellertson. Alma was a great cook and baker and made delicious food. She was very active with church, school and neighborhood events like school programs, ladies' aids, family gatherings, parties and holiday times. She enjoyed entertaining and being entertained by the neighbors. Edwin enjoyed the same events. In addition, he served on the school board and was a township officer. Erwin remembers them having many horses and farming a large acreage. During the drought, times were terrible. They raised a lot of cattle, pigs and milk cows. They also bred and raised their own horses.

In 1961, Leonard began building a steam ship, and took it out for its maiden voyage on the Mississippi in 1965. He used white oak lumber for the hull, and northern white pine for the interior woodwork. He built a small table and storage cabinets in the cabin, and benches along the sides fold out to make beds. In the wheelhouse, a beautiful handmade wheel rests on a stand which he also built. Parts have been salvaged from many places: propeller, light and brass port holes came from an old boat for $10, brass door handles were taken from an old railroad car, and the small wood cook stove he bought at an antiques place in St. Paul for $10. The ship weighs an estimated five tons with its trailer, is 36 feet long and 10 feet wide. (Excerpts from the Pelican Rapids Press, 9/6/95).

When Walter was about 12, he remembers complaining to his mother about having to memorize the ten commandments. She told him she memorized the entire catechism from cover to cover - while milking the cows. He was confirmed at the Crow River Lutheran Church on August 17th, 1924.

Walter went to work at the Belgrade Tribune when he was 14 years old. The editor of the paper then was Ed Vig.

On June 1, 1928, Walter was one of 23 students receiving their diplomas from Mr. Theodore Olson. This was the largest class, to date, to complete high school in Belgrade. Some memorable events during the year included participation by many in the Belgrade High School Athletic Assn. production, "A Full House". This 3-act farce, presented at the opera house on December 2, 1927, featured Walter Johnson as one of its cast members.

Walter was a printer by trade, and a member of the Minneapolis-Saint Paul Typographical Union No. 30 for 40 years.

Notes for Erwin Arnold Gjerdingen:

Erwin and Margaret were married September 15, 1940. As children they lived on farms that were only four miles apart and grew up going to the same East Zion church functions. Erwin shared rides with Margaret's brothers to the church as they read for the minister for Confirmation. Erwin's sister, Orla, and Margaret also shared rooms together in Glenwood where they both went to high school. Previous to being married, Erwin went to a trade school in Fargo, North Dakota to learn mechanical skills for fixing cars, trucks, etc.

Margaret taught country school for two years before she was married. They bought their first house for $500.00 on a payment plan. It was located in Starbuck next to Erwin's grandparents, Torgy and Emma Anondson. The house was about 24 feet long and 16 feet wide. They lived there only over the winter and then moved when Erwin got a job in Benson at Dalen's Electrical Shop. Elmer did the electrical work and Erwin did the car work.

Eventually Erwin worked for a Ford dealership for many years. He enjoyed weekends at a lakeside cottage on Lake Minnewaska and car trips with the family out west. Margaret has been a very active volunteer in school, church and civic events in addition to being a loving and kind homemaker. She was leader in Benson groups such as Women's Christian Temperance Union, Our Redeemer's Ladies' Aid, Society for Cripple Children and American Legion Women's Auxiliary (especially Girls' State and selling poppies). They have two children, Kathleen and Eugene.
